This is a handwritten musical score for piano, consisting of five systems of staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system features a treble staff with a melodic line and a bass staff with a supporting line, marked with cres:. The second system continues the melodic development in the treble and features a more active bass line with sf markings. The third system shows a complex texture with many beamed notes in both staves, including p and pp markings. The fourth system has a more spacious feel with longer notes in the treble and a steady eighth-note pattern in the bass. The fifth system concludes with a final melodic flourish in the treble and a bass line marked with cres: and ff. The score is written in a single key signature with a common time signature.

This page of musical notation consists of five systems of staves, each with a treble and bass clef. The music is written in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The notation includes various musical elements such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

- System 1: Features a forte (ff) dynamic in the bass staff, followed by piano (p) and pianissimo (pp) markings. The treble staff has a forte (f) marking. The system concludes with a series of sixteenth-note runs in both staves.
- System 2: Continues the sixteenth-note runs in the treble staff, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.
- System 3: The treble staff features a rapid, continuous sixteenth-note scale. The bass staff has a marking that appears to be "cres:" (crescendo) and continues with a steady accompaniment.
- System 4: The treble staff begins with a section marked "A" and features a series of chords and melodic fragments. The bass staff has a marking that appears to be "sf" (sforzando) and continues with a steady accompaniment.
- System 5: The treble staff features a series of chords and melodic fragments. The bass staff has a marking that appears to be "pp" (pianissimo) and continues with a steady accompaniment.
